Mysore Local Examinations.

Notification D. No. 91—L. E. 157 of 37-38, dated 31st May 1938.

In modification of Paragraph VIII (I) (i) and (ii) of the Rules relating to the Middle School Examination issued in Notification D. No. 57—E2. 4756—34-35, dated the 8th November 1935, it is hereby notified that in view of the fact that the Text-book for non-detailed study in English has been dropped from the Examination of 1939 onwards, the scope of the question papers in English has been defined as below.—

The maximum number of marks in English will be 100 and the minimum 40, instead, of 120 and 48, respectively as hitherto.

| | Maximum marks. |
|---|---|
| First paper—English Text ... ... | 60 |
| Second paper—General English, Grammar and Translation. | 40 |

Note.—5 marks are reserved for spelling and handwriting in each of the two papers.

1. There will be no questions bearing on Grammar in the First Paper, except Analysis.
2. There will be no questions bearing on the subject matter of the Text in the Second Paper.
3. The First Paper will contain only questions bearing on the subject matter of the Text and the questions will be such that the answers to all of them will not exceed 8 pages. Not more than one question requiring a lengthy answer in the form of a Composition will be set, and that question will require an answer not exceeding 2 pages, all the other questions being such as could be answered in a few sentences or in a small paragraph.
4. The title of the First Paper will be "English Text" and its duration 2½ hours with a maximum of 60 marks (55 for answers plus 5 for handwriting and spelling).
5. The title of the Second Paper will be "General English, Grammar and Translation" with a maximum of 40 marks (35 for answers and 5 for handwriting and spelling). The duration of the paper will be 2 hours. This paper will contain questions on formal Grammar. (Grammar questions based on textual matter being not excluded), and on transformation of sentences (such as turning active into passive, changes of degrees of comparison, expansion and contraction of sentences, idiom and appropriate prepositions, etc.). The question on Translation (English to Vernacular and vice versa) will carry not more than 12 marks.

II. From the Middle School and Upper Primary Examinations of 1939, the maximum number of marks in all the Optional subjects such as Hygiene, Sanskrit, Practical Instruction subjects, etc., will be 100 and the minimum 35, instead of 80 and 28, respectively as hitherto.

M. SULTAN MOHIYUDDIN,
Offg. Director of Public Instruction.
